

Employee Incentives

Utilize Fielo's Salesforce-native Employee Incentives Solution as a guidance system to spur increased revenue performance and customer experience. With an employee incentive program, you can guide and monitor sales and service activities -- and opportunity and case stages, respectively -- and reward employee performance accordingly. Using Fielo's building block process, you can craft a powerful incentive program in minutes or hours (not days or weeks).

In a nutshell, Fielo makes incentives simple.

6 Building Blocks to a Higher Performance

Targeting

Which channel partners do you want to participate?

Budget

How much of your budget do you want to allocate to an incentive?

Behaviors & Rules

What do you want your channel partners to do?

Communications

How will you connect with channel partners throughout the program?

Rewarding

How will you value what your channel partners do?

Analytics

How will you measure channel partners' performance?
